Meet Some of Our Dedicated Staff

DAVID GOLDSTEIN - Lead Social Worker (Retired)
39 Years of Service

"It's all about the relationships you create. I have so many very fond memories of people. My greatest reward is when kids come back and make connections with us as an adult."

CATHIE CORREA - Kitchen Manager
5 Years of Service

"We're in the hospitality business. I love feeding children—it's important, it's rewarding, and it's a great source of comfort for them. Children know you care for them when you make your food with love."

LAURA TAYLOR - Front Desk Coordinator
14 Years of Service

"One of the most challenging things is when parents call who are upset. I understand the pain they're going through, so I always try to take the extra step. When you finally meet them in person and they tell you thank you for listening and give me a hug—that is incredibly rewarding."

GABE MENENDEZ - Activities Supervisor
5 Years of Service

"Recreation and play teach kids how to work together as a team, as well as build their physical, mental, and emotional skills. Seeing them excited is what it's all about—that's what I enjoy about working here."

Success Stories

CRH brought hope and healing to many this past year. We are grateful to share some of their experiences.

No longer simply an emergency shelter, the Children's Receiving Home of Sacramento (CRH) has continually expanded and responded to the needs of children and families in our community.

With a host of innovative programs that treat the whole child—while empowering and supporting strong family connections—CRH often serves children and families that have nowhere else to turn, who are facing seemingly insurmountable challenges.

Our trauma-informed mental health and day treatment programs bring professional, caring staff and effective therapy to kids and families that put them on the road to healing and success.

Dylan
CRH Youth

"The staff were very caring. They always checked up on me to see how I was doing."

Rose
Sprouts Mom

"The improvement I've seen in my children is incredible. Sprouts helped me enjoy my kids again."

Alexa
PHP Youth

"I liked how safe I felt. I could talk about my feelings and situation without being judged."

David
Outpatient Program

"I don't know where we would be without CRH. They have been there for us at every turn."

Julie
ILP Graduate

"CRH will always be a place I can call home, a place I built relationships based on trust and love."

Sarah
PHP Parent

"My child's behavior changed a lot. Because of PHP he is calmer, happier, and more talkative."

Outcomes & Services

At CRH, we provide services that help children and youth heal from past trauma, along with activities that let kids just be kids.

81%

Socially Connected

81% of youth felt socially connected during their time at CRH. When kids are surrounded by those in similar situations, they don't feel alone in what they are facing.

75%

Culturally Sensitive

75% of youth felt that CRH was culturally sensitive to their needs. We provide culturally-relevant services and supports to TAY (Transition-Age Youth), NMD (Non-Minor Dependents), and LGBTQ youth.

94%

Overall Satisfaction

94% of parents and caregivers were satisfied with the services their youth received through programs like Kaiser Residential, PHP and our Sprouts: Trauma-Informed Care Preschool.

GROUPS

7,587

youth participated in therapy groups in 2016-2017. Groups teach vital skills in areas such as: mindfulness, self esteem, interpersonal effectiveness, distress tolerance, self respect, and healthy eating habits.

ACTIVITIES

476

activities for youth were provided in 2016-2017. On-and off-campus activities included: miniature golf, Sacramento Kings games, movies, ice cream parties, barbecues, skate nights, bowling, and flag football.

MEALS

70,810

healthy meals were served to kids in 2016-2017. For many, being at CRH was the first time they didn't go hungry during the day.

227,147

miles were driven taking kids to school and important medical and dental appointments, as well as fun outings and activities.

DEMOGRAPHICS

In 2016-2017, 32% of the youth we served were African-American, 32% were Caucasian, 18% were Hispanic, 10% were Multi-Ethnic, and 8% were Other or Declined-to-State.

"While I was at CRH, the staff always tried to make me feel good and helped me understand why I was here."

"Of all the charities out there, CRH is the most worthwhile. It serves the community in a unique way that just can't be duplicated."

— Bernard "Bud" Lewis, M.D.
Former Pediatrician &
CRH Board Member

Dear Friends,

This time last year, I was sitting down to write an update on what was to come to the Children's Receiving Home of Sacramento (CRH) with the state-mandated changes transitioning us from a shelter care facility to a Short-Term Residential Therapeutic Program (STRTP). For those of you unfamiliar with this acronym, this is the new term for an out-of-home-care facility that provides specialized and intensive care, treatment, supervision, services, and support to children and youth affected by abuse, neglect, trauma, and mental health issues.

As we know with changes of this scope, progress is often slow and I have found myself reflecting on what to say about this past year and how these significant changes are affecting CRH.

You've heard the phrase, "You have to walk before you can run," or perhaps even, "crawl before you can walk." As a parent painstakingly invests in their growing child to ensure he or she has the foundation to move forward with each developmental step, we at CRH have been doing the same—putting building blocks in place and making sure not to miss any key components that would cause us to stumble later on. Progress is slow, but slow and steady is necessary to ensure we are setting CRH up for success in the changing landscape of this brave new world.

This past year has been all about preparing for full implementation of our STRTP program and positioning CRH as an even more innovative and impactful agency that serves our community's most vulnerable children and youth.

Staffing levels have increased, as have our pay rates to ensure we can recruit and maintain a high level of educated and passionate direct care staff. We have completely overhauled our IT and phone systems to ensure communication lines are (literally) open and responsive. Our managers have implemented a new and innovative evidence-based practice called MAP (Managing and Adapting Practice) that uses a computerized model to track treatment progress and behavior, and gives our clinicians feedback and outcomes about treatment decisions. Directors and managers recently visited a Trauma Informed Care program in Kansas to learn from their practices and outcomes and share ideas to better serve our youngest survivors of abuse and neglect.

As with a developing child, change and progress do not come without their share of growing pains. In evaluating our growing campus needs, we had to say farewell to our on-grounds school that had been a part of CRH since the 1970s. Although difficult, we believe our strategic thinking will ultimately lead to a more efficient and effective agency. We will cease our crawling or walking, stand tall and confidently stride into the future as an STRTP. We will continue to carry out our mission to provide the best possible care to the valued kids we serve so passionately.

So, we wait with anticipation to take our first steps as a licensed STRTP. As a parent feels immense pride and accomplishment when their child achieves this milestone, so shall we after this time of intense preparation.

As always, your support means everything to me and the staff at the Children's Receiving Home. We could not do what we do without your unwavering dedication to us and the children we serve. Thank you for standing with us and always moving forward towards the future.

Most sincerely,

David Ballard, LCSW
Chief Executive Officer
